FRIDAY November 4, 1881. LOCAL MENTION.

The Weather. OFFICE OF THE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER.) Washington, D.C., November 4, 1881, 9:30 a.m. For the Middle Atlantic states, fair weather, continued cold northwest to southwest winds and rising barometer. Special Weather Bulletin. FAIR AND WARMER WEATHER TO-MORKOW.

The chief signal officer furnishes the following special bulletin to the press:—The storm wat h was central north of Lake Huron yesterday morning has moved directly to the eastward across the St. Lawrence and is now central near Eastport. Rain prevailed in the regions east of the Mississippi and continues in New England. Fair and colder weather is reported this morning from the southern and middle states and the Ohio valley, and light snows are reported from the lake region and Minnesota. The temperature has fallen from 10° to 20° in the districts east of the Mississippi, and kill-ing frosts are reported as far south as Atlanta and Vicksburg. Violent northwesterly winds continue on the Atlantic coast between Cape Hatteras and Boston, and light south to west winds are reported from the lake region northwest and southwest. The indications are that fair and colder weather will prevail in New England on Saturday, and that fair and slightly warmer weather will prevail in the middle and south Atiantic states during Sat- time the civil war began. CITY AND DISTRICT.

Amusements, &c., To-night. Ford's Opera House.—"The Tourists." National Theater.—The Emma Abbott Company in "Faust." Masonic Temple.-St. Patrick's Church fair.

Condensed Locals. THE STAR will be issued in double sheet or light-page form of fifty-six columns to-morrow. Newsdealers can be supplied at a moment's notice, with our new fast printing and folding ma-chinery, but advertisers are requested to send in their orders at the earliest practicable moment for this enlarged and extraordinary edition. THE STAR printed 2,409 new advertisements in October, being 407 more than it printed in October,

Yesterday the Baltimere and Potomac R.R. Co. placed in the ladies' room at the depot in this city metal star on the floor at the spot where President Garfield's head rested when he fell, after being shot by the assassin Guiteau. Judge Wylle made a decree of divorce yesterday in the case of James H. Anderson agt. Ellen H. Anderson, on the ground of desertion for 9 years past, the parties having lived together as man and wife but three weeks. Mrs. Honorah Lynch, wife of Mr. James Lynch, a well known plasterer, living on Massachusetts avenue, between 21 and 3d streets, died last evening

The Capitol City Guards met last evening and four active and nine honorary members were elected. Their auxiliary committee, consisting of ladies, are making arrangements to hold a fair the latter part of this month.

Amusements, &c. FORD'S OPERA HOUSE .- The Tourists give three more performances-to-night, to-morrow night, and at the matinee to-merrow. They are doing a good business and certainly deserve the widest NATIONAL THEATER.-The Emma Abbott Company appeared last evening in "Olivette." Miss Rosewald sang "Olivette" delightfully, and Fabrini was a creditable "Valentine." The performance was not in all respects so satisfactory, but the chorus and orchestration were good. Tonight "Faust" will be given, with Miss Abbott in her great role of "Marguerite." It will be seen that a triple bill is to be presented at the National Theater to-morrow night, consisting of the entire opera of the "Two Cavallers," the "Tower Scene" from "Trovatore," and the mad scene from "Lucia."

THE SKATING RINK.—The roller skating rink will be reopened for the season next Monday. A new asphalt surface has been laid. The interior has been renovated and fitted up in a very attractive manner. The skating will be delightful over the skating new surface. The management has secured an

MR. WM. DICKSON AND POLICEMAN LOFTUS TELL THEIR RESPECTIVE STORIES IN THE POLICE COURT.—
Wm. Dickson, a well-known citizen, was put on trial in the Police Court to-day on a charge of using profane language on the street. The case was called yesterday and the collateral forfeited, and subsequently the forfeiture was set aside, and the case was tried to-day. Mr. A. B. Williams appeared for defendant. Policeman Loftus testified that about 1 o'clock yesterday morning he was in pursuit of two colored men, and while concealed in an alley on G street, between 9th and 10th sts., he saw them stop a gentleman, and thinking they in an alley on G street, between 9th and 10th sts., he saw them stop a gentleman, and thinking they He then bequeaths his estate among his family and meant violence or robbery he went in pursuit of them and also to protect the gentleman. He asked | leaves $800 in stock: to his son Joseph his father's Mr. Dickson what inquiries the men made, when Dickson replied, "Who are you?" Witness an-Dickson replied, "Who are you?" Witness and to his son Theodore F. a portrait of Washington, swered, "Don't you see who I am? I am an offiand to his wife his household effects during cer." Mr. Dickson then said, "Yes, I see you are a cop. What right have you to stop me, you - -- of a -?" and other remarks of the same kind. and witness took him to the station house. Mr. Dickson took the stand, and said that he was on his way to his home, which was about 100 feet from where he was arrested, and was stopped by two colored men, and on giving them the information desired by them he was suddenly stopped by the officer, whose manner excited witness. The officer asked who the men were, and witness said he did not know. The officer then asked some other questions, and witness told him that was a matter for him (the officer) to look after, and the officer put him under arrest. If there was any improper language used it was after the arrest. The court said this was a case where an officer testified for the government, and a witness for the defence who was a respectable citizen. The testimony was evenly balanced, and he would dismiss the defendant.

Sergeant Mason's Case. THE DELAY IN HIS TRIAL BY COURT MARSHAL-IN-

QUIRING AS TO HIS SANITY. The trial of Sergeant Mason, who shot a Guiteau, which was ordered some time ago by court marshal, was, it will be remembered, suspended until further orders. The reason for the lelay is to allow a full and careful examination to be had as to the sanity of Mason. The military authorities—especially in view of the fact that Mason is believed to be insone by them—deemed it best that before he was brought to trial a careful examination as to his sanity or insanity be made. Mason has been under the direct supervision of a medical officer, who is making a careful study of his mental faculties. The delay of his rial is not an indication on the part of the miliary authorities that they are disinclined to try im for his gress disobedience of orders, but a laudable endeavor to ascertain beforehand whether he is probably sane or insane. The result of the close medical scrutiny under which Mason is placed, will decide whether he shall be tried by court marshal or sent to the insane asy-SOMETHING OF MASON'S CAREER. Mr. J. G. Bigelow, attorney for Sergeant Mason, says that the sergeant never served in the confederate army, but on his mother's side had twenty-four cousins in that army. Mr. Bigelow says: "Sergeant Mason was born in 1845, in Spottsylvacounty, Va. In 1800 his father and his only brother, with their tamilies, removed to enlisted in Company B, 78th Ohio volunteers, commanded by Col. M. D. Leggett, afterward made a general, and who was late Commissioner of Patents. On May 12, 1863, young Mason was severely wounded at Raymond, Miss., by the accidental discharge of his gun. At the time his company was supporting a light Michigan battery, and a cavalryman in the rear of the line, being shot, reeled and fell from his horse, Mason, with his musket in his left hand, shoved himself up from the ground, and pointing to the cavalryman, said: "Look there." In doing so his musket accident-

and passed out through the shoulder joint, tearing off the rim of his left ear. CHANGE IN HIS DISPOSITION. "The shot destroyed a number of the cervical nerves attached to the cerebrum. Ever since that shot Mason has been of an excitable disposition. The change of his disposition was observed almost immediately after his return home in 1865, and again upon his visit to his sisters and brothers, any security oil, $4.50, at Schaefer's, 1020 7th street | who reside at Davies, Mo., he quarreled with them within twenty-four hours, and at the end of two days departed in a fever of passion. His disposition had undergone such a marked change as to cause his people to speculate as to the question of his insanity. About this time one of his sisters wrote a letter to her cousin in Virginia, saying that her brother Charles was losing his mind. His real name is Charles D. Mason. He enlisted under this name in the Ohio regiment. He assumed the name under which he is now known, John A. Mason, apon entering the regular army. There are a large number of persons in the District of Columbia who became acquainted with Mason before and about the time of his marriage, two years ago. They noticed his eccentricities and thought him insane ENGLISH STONE CHINA CHAMBER SET, only $2.25. long before he shot at Guiteau. When his trial will take place I do not know. The court was appointed by Gen. Hancock more than a month go, and was to have convened the 28th of September for his trial, but the order was suspended until further notice. As yet no notice has been received as to when the trial will take place, if ever it will. I suppose it was postponed because of the Yorktown centennial celebration. I am ready to proceed with the trial, and do not think there will be the slightest difficulty in establishing the fact of Mason's insanity."

The Sunday School Institute.

CLOSING SESSIONS AT THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH. Mr. Hurlburt gave a normal lesson on the Life of Christ, and a question draw was opened. In the lecture room Mrs. Crafts taught the lesson for November 6 as exhibiting of the methods of primary instruction. At the final session of the institute in the evening the devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. J. E. Rankin. An interesting talk on "Our English Bible" was given by Rev. Mr. Hurlburt. Mrs. Crafts spoke of "The Art of Questioning." The query box was opened by Mr. Hurlburt, and a number of questions were answered.

Mr. Cobb spoke of the importance of a more gen. eral interest on the part of teachers in Sunday

The Case of Guiteau.

SUMMONSES SERVED. To-day the subpæneas for the government witnesses resident here, eighteen in number, were placed in the hands of Mr. Searles, of the marshal's office. This directs them to appear on the 14th instant (Monday week.)

BLANK SUMMONSES FOR ELEVEN UNKNOWN WIT-NESSES. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Scoville, of counse for Guiteau, made application to Judge Cox for leave to take out in blank the residue of the twenty subpænas. The names of the nine or ten witnesses already summoned have been published from the court records, and he deemed it due his client and his case that no information, except the proper legal information, be given hereafter of the preliminary proceedings for the defence. Judge Cox said that he had been accustomed, when at the bar, to take out subpænas in blank. It was a common custom, and Mr. Scoville was entitled to the advantage of it if he desired. He hereupon directed the clerk to furnish Mr. Scoville the subpænas in blank, and he received under this order eleven blank summons, which he will use at his discretion, and apply for more if he has need of more.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY ROLLINS ASKED TO ASSIST IN THE PROSECUTION. District Attorney Daniel G. Rollins, at present the republican candidate for surrogate in New York city, received yesterday a communication from the Solicitor General of the United States requesting him to assist in the prosecution of Guiteau. Mr. Rollins holds the request under consid-

GUITEAU ON THE ONRIDA COMMUNITY. The circular which Guiteau early in 1868 issued against the Oneida Community and which had been preceded by a quarrel between him and Noyes, the chief of the order, is as follows:

THE ONEIDA COMMUNITY-ITS INTERNAL CHARACTER-HOW YOUNG WOMEN ARE TREATED, ETC. -AN APPEAL TO ALL LOVERS OF VIRTUE.

Whereas the Oneida Community is among the most spiritual and social despotisms of the nineteenth century, and whereas in social matters they are constantly violating the most eacred laws of God and man; and whereas nightly innocent girls and innocent young women are sacrificed to an experience easier imagined than described, and whereas for the sake of these ruined and oppressed women and for the good of society at large, said community ought to be "cleaned out." Therefore let all good people frown upon such outrageous practices; let merchants refuse to deal with them; let the press, bench and pulpit denounce with righteous indignation such a terrible despotism, remembering them that are in bonds as bound with them. Let the religious and moral sentiment of the nation be awakened at such gross licentiousness; let the proper civil officers at once commence criminal proceedings against the leaders of that community to the end that it may be "wiped out" and the dignity of the law vindicated.

Reader, What say you? Shall it be done? Stand to your convictions and it will be.

No name is signed to this appeal, as the object No name is signed to this appeal, as the object of it is simply to call attention to the fact herein set forth. Startling as they are they can be proved. The Oneida Community is located in Madison county, N. Y., with branches at Wallingford and

New Haven, Conn.

GUITEAU'S EXPERIENCE AT ONEDIA. According to Guiteau's statement he worked in the Oneida Community for some time and let Noyes have the use of his money, amounting to about busy. $600. After realizing the true character of the community and the practices, which he terms horrible, among them, he concluded to abandon their society. Noyes refunded his money, but refused to allow him any interest or to give him anything as compensation for the work he had done. This irritated Suiteau, who instituted suit to recover what he says was due him and unlawfully withheld by Noyes. It was at this time he published the above circular, but was induced to drop the contest because of his father, who earnestly sympathized with the Oneida Community. hould Mr. Noyes conclude to leave Clifton.Canada, and come to Washington to testify to the unat the session of the Sunday School Institute at ruly and mischlevous disposition of Guiteau, he may be subjected to an examination that will bring to light some of the buried mysteries of the community, which he represented so many years. Guiteau's description of life in the community is frightful.

JOHN NORRIS' ALLEGED THIEVING CONFEDERATE ARRESTED.-Yesterday a notorious character, named Frank Cronin, was arrested by officer Breen. Cronin is alleged to be the boon companion of John Norris, another thief, who was sent down a few days ago for snatching a silver watch from a Mr. Wendell. When Norris was arrested the watch could not be found upon his person, though he was seen to take it. Yesterday Cronin coolly procured a step-ladder, and going to the bookstore of Mr. Mohun asked permission to go upon the roof of the building to get some property which some one had maliciously thrown there. While in the second story he stole a ladies' cloak, and was taken to the station house. Search was then made on the roof by the officer, and Mr. Wendell's watch was found, where Cronin had thrown it when pursued. Frank Cronin was charged in the Police Court to-day with second offence of petit larceny in stealing a water-proof cloak from Judd & Det-weiler's printing office, the property of Inez C. Elmer. Officer Breen testified as to the arrest, and that Cronin admitted he stole the article, and that his object in wanting to get on the roof was to get the watch from the roof that John Norris told witness in jail that he threw there. The case was sent to the grand jury, and defendant was committed in default of $500 bail. Officer Breen afterwards got on the roof and recovered the watch.

Alexandria-American co., 437.17.

Reported for THE EVENING STAR. ALEXANDRIA'S RAILROAD INTERESTS.-The three railways whose creation followed Alexandria's retrocession to Virginia have all changed hands. The Manassas Gap company was ruined by the war, and was annihilated at its close; part of the road is now a branch of the Virginia Midland and the other part a branch of the Baltimore and Ohio-The Virginia Midland company, itself twice reorganized, is not now a local company. The Washington and Ohio passed some months ago into the hands of a Richmond court, and will be sold and reorganized next February. The bondholders of that road in this neighborhood are now moving to prevent the sacrifice of that road, and if possible o secure a reorganization of the company by the bondholders. Several conferences and meetings with this view have lately been held, and a committee of bondholders residing on the line of the road now have the matter in charge. THE CAPITATION TAX.—The payment of capitation taxes is still slow. The new appointment of a special collector, anticipated in The Star, has been made, Mr. R. L. Windsor, being appointed. Only three or four white voters have paid their capitation tax within the past few days, and not many more colored voters. But both party com-mittees are now at work, and within a few hours both Col. Mayre and Mr. Windsor will be kept

P. S.—The above-mentioned flour is CLRES, the celebrated Minnesota Patent Process Flour, which was awarded the First Premium against all other competitors at the National Fair in 1879 and 1880 (gold medal), and now again in 1881. The competition in Flour was certainly a very lively one this year, and the premium was well contested for, but it was simply an impossibility to beat CERES, and the premium just awarded is only adding another triumph to the magnificent success this so celebrated i lour has gained in this community.

We would respectfully mention the fact that Mrs. S. F. Anderson received the first premium for the handsomes. Anderson received the first premium for the handsomest rolls and biscuits on exhibition, and they were made of CERES FLOUL, which is only another proof that it stands A No. 1 among the best Minnesota Patent Floure IN NOTTINGHAM CURTAINS at $1, $1.25 and $1.50 We have succeeded in securing another lot of those 4½ yard long Nottingham Curtains at $5 per pair. a duplicate of those which we advertised at this price in the summer—are worth $10.
